Hi Nils,

can we do this together? This would be a great playground for me to learn ExtJS and to get involved into Phoenix.

Maybe we should make this some kind of package with all default ExtJS components and all TYPO3 components we are building. If we make it available within TYPO3 people could possibly also test their own skins, or even add their custom components to this view if they are registered in the registry or something like that...

If help is needed, let me know... I think this task is quite big, so spreading the work wouldn't be that bad...

yes, we have to find a place where we can build something like this

<http://dev.sencha.com/deploy/dev/examples/themes/index.html>

where we easily can add new components

I just found out that we can use sass to create our theme:

<http://www.sencha.com/products/js/themes.php>

<http://rubygems.org/gems/extjs-theme>

<http://github.com/extjs/extjs-theme> - howto

Closing issue because it is either obsolete in the new FE architecture, or duplicate.
