[FEATURE] Add XLIFF files with common labels for translation

This adds XLIFF files with a few basic labels and a german translation.

This shows the principle and can be used as a base for a generic label catalog to use in all FLOW3 applications.

History

#1 - 2011-01-29 23:34 - Karol Gusak

- Issue #11035 - the framework should distinguish locales fully supported (languages for which all translation files etc exist) from basically supported locales (datetime / numbers conversion rules and so on, known for virtually all languages - from CLDR)
- The resources localization by adding locale-tag suffix (like foo.en-GB.png) can be problematic (it makes mess in directory) - it would be nice to have something like resource bundle in Java
- Support for more data from CLDR (most important: sorting rules)
- Internationalization of models (to do multi-language articles etc)?

These are the most important shortages AFAIR, if I find more I will post here :-).

Closing this one due to bit rot setting in... :)

The state was assessed and tweaked heavily. Whatever is still missing (we'll see) should get new feature issues.
