Sprint Focus:

Subject:	Remove deprecated parts marked for removal in TYPO3 4.4/4.5/4.6

Description

Haven't yet looked into the details of these places, just collected where old versions are mentioned and where removals might be due.

Some which were scheduled to be removed before or in 4.5 might need individual decisions to "backport" a removal or not.

t3lib/config_default.php: 'elementVersioningOnly' => TRUE,   // If TRUE, only element versioning is allowed in the backend (see option newPagesVersioningType). Setting this flag is recommended for new installations of TYPO3 4.2+ since "page" and "branch" versioning types are known for the drawbacks of loosing ids and "element" type versions supports moving now. Please note that "page" and "branch" types are deprecated since TYPO3 4.2 and will be unsupported in TYPO3 4.6. Thus, this option will be removed in TYPO3 4.6.

[BUGFIX] Enlarge on click for images does not open a popup

With issue #27983 some deprecated parts were removed but obviously too much. Although $GLOBALS['TSFE']->additionalJavascript is used throughout the core, after this issue it was never rendered anymore in the frontend.

The javascript function openPic was never added to the frontend because of this.

This patch reinstates the responsible lines which were removed for Enlarge on click
