TYPO3.Flow - Bug # 32285

Status:	Resolved	Priority:	Must have
Author:	Peter Beernink	Category:	Security
Created:	2011-12-04	Assigned To:	Bastian Waidelich
Updated:	2011-12-21	Due date:

PHP Version:
Has patch:	No
Complexity:
Affected Flow version: FLOW3 1.0.1
Subject:	Logout doesn't work anymore in FLOW3 1.0.1
Description

After updating from FLOW3 1.0.0 to 1.0.1 it is not possible anymore to logout from an authenticated session.

The issue to be introduced by commit:970c615. When I revert those changes I am able to logout again.

I've also tested it on the Blog package. There the same behavior is shown.
It displays the flash message, but in the footer the administration link is still displayed and accessible.

[BUGFIX] Logout doesn't work anymore

Since eab9bf9 calling AuthenticationProviderManager::logout() without initializing the Security Context first, returns without actually destroying the authentication cookie.
This change fixes this by introducing a new convenience method isAuthenticated() to the AuthentcationManagerInterface allowing the AuthenticationProviderManager to check whether a user is authenticated before trying to fetch the session.

Tested on FLOW3 master with TYPO3.LDAP package. This provider does logout.

To test: Blog package on current master

Hi Peter,

I can't reproduce this issue.
With a fresh checkout of the Blog distribution clicking on the "Logout"-Link in the footer successfully kills the session and I have to login again in order to administer the blog..
Did you try flushing the cache?

Hi Bastian,

I've tested it on a base FLOW3 1.0.1 distribution in which I installed the Blog package, I haven't tested it on the Blog distribution.

However, I just cloned it, and it seems that the Blog distribution is still using 1.0.0, so the change in question is not applied there.

Hang on, maybe I wasn't working with latest masters in fact. I'll recheck
