

TYPO3.Flow - Bug # 34872

Status:	Resolved	Priority:	Must have
Author:	Karsten Dambekalns	Category:	Validation
Created:	2012-03-15	Assigned To:	Adrian Föder
Updated:	2013-04-05	Due date:
PHP Version:
Has patch:	No
Complexity:
Affected Flow version: FLOW3 1.0.3
Subject:	Singleton validators never have their options passed
Description
The ValidatorResolver does not pass options to validators that are singletons:
<pre>case Configuration::SCOPE_PROTOTYPE: $validator = new $validatorObjectName($validatorOptions); break; case Configuration::SCOPE_SINGLETON: $validator = $this->objectManager->get($validatorObjectName); break;</pre>
Since singletons cannot get constructor arguments via get() but only through object configuration, we should at least check for options given to a singleton here and inform the developer about a probably bug in his code...

[BUGFIX] Throw exception when using options with singleton validators

Validators being singleton must not be called with options because the options are then inherent properties of the Validator and cannot be executed subsequently with other options.

An exception is thrown if such a case occurs because it is then a design mistake of the developer.

Besides, this improves the namespace use a bit.
