| Subject:   | Make use of Extbase features |                     |                                |
| Description  |                              |                     |                                |
| The workspace module uses the Extbase dispatcher for backend modules, however, there are many places where domain models, repositories and proper services would make sense, e.g.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Domain_Model_Workspace (+ Repository)</li><li>- Domain_Model_DatabaseRecord (could be live or version record) - lazy, just needs table and uid to be working</li><li>- Domain_Model_CombinedRecord (the relationship of live and version record) - lazy, just needs table and uid to be working</li><li>- Domain_Model_Stage (+ Repository)</li></ul> |                              |                     |                                |
