Subject:	When logged out, some (menu) links still have @johndoe.html
Description
When logged out, some (not all) links in an automatically generated menu still have the user namespace carrying, for example http://dev.internal.example.org/node502771126c5f7/node50277a063bc0f@user-adrian.html ...resulting in an 403 Forbidden when clicking on it. When manually removing this addendum, the page serves fine as expected.
