Subject:	Refactor Node Type Definition according to new syntax
Description	see #44955 for the to-be-implemented node type definition
How To Review	The change is currently under review in https://review.typo3.org/#/q/topic:44982,n,z However, the change is quite big, so that's why I created some github repositories which show the incremental changes which were made (to make the diff more manageable): <ul style="list-style-type: none">- https://github.com/skurfuerst/TYPO3.Neos/commits/dev-nodetyperenaming- https://github.com/skurfuerst/TYPO3.Neos.ContentTypes/commits/dev-nodetyperenaming- https://github.com/skurfuerst/TYPO3.TYPO3CR/commits/dev-nodetyperenaming <ul style="list-style-type: none">- For each version which has been pushed to gerrit, a tag has been created named reviewX (e.g. review1) in all of the three repositories above- After every incremental change I did, Neos was (I think) fully functional for me. So you can easily check out any intermediate step by just cloning the respective versions from the GitHub repository.- just make sure to use the non-minified JavaScript while testing, and if necessary clear all caches. HAPPY TESTING :-)
Next Steps	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- There will be one more breaking change for 1.0, which renames TYPO3.Neos.ContentTypes to TYPO3.Neos.NodeTypes. but aside from that, the node type definition should be quite stable now :-)- Furthermore, the base node types will still change once again (#45317)

[!!!][FEATURE] Refactored node type definitions
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Internal use of "Content Type" is consistently renamed to "Node Type"- Node type configuration is externalized from Settings.yaml into NodeTypes.yaml- Refactored node type schema structure

This change is breaking because it completely changes the Node Type configuration format.

The change needs to be tested together with the related ones in the other packages; see #44982 for detailed instructions.

[!!!][FEATURE] Refactored node type definitions

- internal use of "Content Type" is consistently renamed to "Node Type"
- node type configuration is externalized from Settings.yaml into NodeTypes.yaml
- refactored node type schema structure

This change is breaking because it completely changes the Node Type configuration format.

Furthermore it is breaking because a database migration needs to be executed.

The change needs to be tested together with the related ones in the other packages; see #44982 for detailed instructions.

The following TODOs still remain:

- [MUST HAVE FOR 1.0] rename TYPO3.Neos.ContentTypes to TYPO3.Neos.NodeTypes (#45309)
- [MUST HAVE FOR 1.0] document the new syntax (#44971)
- [OPTIONAL] implement enhanced @position syntax (#45310)
- [OPTIONAL] add isAbstract and isMixin to node type schema (#45311)
- [OPTIONAL] add required child nodes to node types (#45312)
- [VERY NICE TO HAVE] make it validatable (#44990)
