CKEditor

Pros

- Supports all wanted features
- Same editor for inline editing and textarea (RTE)
- Already working with create.js (Implemented by Bergie)
- Can be used instead of both Aloha and Hallo
 - Simple editing options for headlines
 - Advanced editing options for text
- More solid user experience
- Larger community / more developers / more extensions
- Better default design

Cons

- Not already implemented
- Missing link plugin

while your are add it you could also check out the inline editing feature from TinyMCE http://www.tinymce.com/tryit/inline.php small Presentation of the latest changes: http://www.tinymce.com/presentation/index.html#/

has probably most of the Pros from CKEditor with an even larger community.

Definitely worth a look!!!

- Status changed from New to Closed

- Target version set to 1.0 beta 1
- Remaining (hours) set to 0.0

For now we're sticking with Aloha.
