- Tracker changed from Bug to Feature

#2 - 2014-01-21 13:23 - Christian Zenker

- Target version deleted (TER Code Sprint 2013)

#3 - 2014-05-04 17:24 - Kay Strobach

shouldn't we allow this for normal extensions as well?

I would like to have this in, because sometimes this makes it easier to get a first impression of the content of the extension.

As we need to check whether images are there at all, we can just display them even for "normal" Extensions. I would implement it that way.
