Subject:	Add functional tests from irre_tutorial to the core
Description	irre_tutorial extension contains some functional tests for the core and workspaces. It would be nice to rewrite them to the functional testing framework and include them in the core.

[TASK] Add functional tests from irre_tutorial to the core

Add irre_tutorial extension as mock extension for functional tests.
Port functional tests from IRRE tutorial to the functional testing framework and include them in the core and workspaces extensions.
Some tests are skipped for now, because the core is buggy.
