TYPO3.Neos - Bug # 55980

Status:	Resolved	Priority:	Should have
Author:	Andreas Sander	Category:	UI

Subject:	Buggy Structure Panel

Description

Whenever I create a content element, via the plus icon, in the structure panel I have to reload the backend manually to actually see what I've created before. When I add the element in the preview area, the actual website, I can see the object directly after adding it.

Can't reproduce it on the actual master so it should be solved with the next release/ be cherry picked to 1.1 branch
