Subject:	form.select: building option keys with viewhelper not possible
Description
The fluid parser doesn't support using viewhelpers as array keys, so the following would not get parsed <pre>&lt;f:form.select name="filter" id="filterbox" options="{   {f:uri.action(action: 'index', arguments:{filter: 'health'})}:{f:translate(key: '\dep.health\')} }"&gt;   &lt;select&gt;     &lt;option value=""&gt;###dummy###&lt;/option&gt;   &lt;/select&gt; &lt;/f:form.select&gt;</pre>
Feature-request: Introducing an new argument optionsValuesArray to map the options array keys to other values. Example: <pre>&lt;f:form.select name="filter" id="filterbox" options="{   health: '{f:translate(key: '\dep.health\')} }" optionsValuesArray = "{   health: '{f:uri.action(action: \'index\', arguments: {filter: \'health\'})}' }"&gt;   &lt;select&gt;     &lt;option value=""&gt;###dummy###&lt;/option&gt;   &lt;/select&gt; &lt;/f:form.select&gt;</pre>

#8 - 2010-12-01 17:06 - Marc Bastian Heinrichs

This has a bug with selecting the correct option as selected, because comparing for the selected value is done after replacing the keys with the values from optionsValuesArray.

#9 - 2011-07-25 19:58 - Bastian Waidelich

- Tracker changed from Feature to Suggestion
