I'm experiencing the same issue in TYPO3 4.4 & feeditadvanced 1.3.0.

Hey guys,
Can you see if the attached patch fixes the issue for you?

You'll notice the second parameter for "t3lib_div::makeInstance('t3lib_SpriteManager', TRUE);" is true, which means that we're forcing a rebuild of the cached sprites on every single request. This of course isn't the right way to do it but I haven't figure out why its failing with FALSE instead of TRUE.

Thanks,
Jeff

Hi Jeff,

with the patch the error no longer shows up.

Maybe Steffen Ritter can help you with the sprites. I think he wrote and implemented the code.

Christopher

- Subject changed from Frontend Editing gives PHP Warning: in_array(): Wrong datatype for second argument in t3lib/class.t3lib_iconworks.php line 649 to Sprite manager not initialized for editing forms

Upon further investigation, I see that typo3/init.php sets the regenerate flag to true as well. Since this code only runs when the backend editing form is loaded, it does in fact make sense to regenerate if necessary and performance isn't a huge concern at that point like it would be in a normal frontend request.

Will commit this shortly.
